

Meet one of your teachers

Dr. Jana Urbanovská is an assistant professor at the Faculty of Social Studies, at the Department of International Relations and European Studies focusing on research related to German Foreign Policy.

WHAT YOUR SEMESTER CAN LOOK LIKE

- Global Politics: Current Issues
- Human Rights, Democratization and Global Justice
- International Organizations and Diplomacy
- European Integration
- Contemporary History of Europe

Reasons for a Bachelor's in International Relations and European Politics at FSS

- Over 10 visits a year from ambassadors sharing their experience and knowledge
- Advisors committed to your studies, helping decide your thesis topic
- Connections to internships to expand your study opportunities
- A faculty and university committed to your success - academic and personal

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The documents we collect are:

- Secondary school certificate or proof of current studies
- Proof of English - B2 level minimum (if you do not have a certificate, you will pass a brief examination at our faculty's Language center to proof your command of English)
- ID or passport copy

All applicants also sit for an online entrance exam.

Full details here.

ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

Mgr. Klára Němečková is the admissions advisor and is available to answer any questions you have about the application process. Please contact her at admission@fss.muni.cz.

Contact your student ambassador

Amira is currently in her second semester in Brno, and is happy to answer any questions about the bachelor's programme, life in Brno, or completing the application process.

Feel free to contact any of our student ambassadors regarding life in Brno - Amira and Abhinav are the best students to answer questions about the programme International Relations and European Politics.

