

Meet one of your teachers

Dr. Marek Rybář is an associate professor at the Department of Political Science, Faculty of Social Studies focusing on research related to democracy. He teaches in the English study programme Conflict and Democracy Studies.

WHAT YOUR SEMESTER CAN LOOK LIKE

- Democracy and media
- Political marketing and campaigning
- Populist political communication
- Politics, media and civil society
- Data visualization

Reasons for a Bachelor's in Politics, Media, and Communication

- Simultaneously study and understand the theoretical background of 2 different perspectives: Political Science and Media Studies and Journalism
- Focus on how politics and media are interconnected
- Advisors committed to your studies, helping decide your thesis topic
- Prepare yourself for work after graduation, or continued studies in all areas of studies.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The documents we collect are:

- Secondary school certificate or proof of current studies
- Proof of English - B2 level minimum (if you do not have a certificate, you will pass a brief examination at our faculty's Language center to proof your command of English)
- ID or passport copy

All applicants also sit for an online entrance exam.

Full details here.

ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

Mgr. Klára Němečková is the admissions advisor and is available to answer any questions you have about the application process. Please contact her at admission@fss.muni.cz.

Contact your student ambassador

Abhinav is currently in his fourth semester in Brno, and is happy to answer any questions about studying a bachelor's at the Masaryk University, life in Brno, or completing the application process.

Feel free to contact any of our student ambassadors regarding life in Brno - Amira and Abhinav are the best students to answer questions about bachelor's studies specifically.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

15 November

