

Meet one of your teachers

Dr. Bernadette Nadya Jaworsky is an associate professor at the Department of Sociology, Faculty of Social Studies focusing on research related to migration and immigration. She teaches in the English study programmes Sociology and Cultural Sociology.

WHAT YOUR SEMESTER CAN LOOK LIKE

- Inequality and society
- Culture, Technology and Society
- Migration, Transnationalism and the City
- Narratives, Icons, Identities

Reasons for a Master's in Sociology

- Study at one of the oldest sociological institutes in Europe.
- Study a semester abroad, at one of our numerous partners.
- Participate in research on migration, inequality, population studies, and aging.
- A faculty and university committed to your success - academic and personal.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The documents we collect are:

- Motivation letter/statement of purpose (in English)
- CV/Resume
- Diploma or proof of current bachelor's studies
- Transcripts of Grades from bachelor's degree
- Proof of English (if you do not have a certificate, submit an honest statement)
- 2 letters of recommendation
- ID or passport copy

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

15 November

ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

Mgr. Klára Němečková is the admissions advisor and is available to answer any questions you have about the application process. Please contact her at admission@fss.muni.cz.

Contact your student ambassador

After working in the field of marketing and media for years, Nicolas decided to further his education. He is able to answer any questions about the master's programme, life in Brno, or completing the application process.

Feel free to contact any of our student ambassadors regarding life in Brno - Darina is the best student to answer questions about the programme International Relations and European Politics.

