

Meet one of your teachers

Dr. Marek Rybář is an associate professor at the Department of Political Science, Faculty of Social Studies focusing on research related to democracy. He teaches in the English study programme Conflict and Democracy Studies.

WHAT YOUR SEMESTER CAN LOOK LIKE

- Modern Technologies and Conflicts
- Conflict Management
- Hybrid Warfare
- Far Right and Left Parties
- Radicalization of Politics

Reasons for a Master's in Conflict and Democracy Studies

- Dive deep into the topic of democratization and
- Different structures of classes including mock negotiations and debate-style components
- Study a semester abroad, at one of our numerous partners.
- A faculty and university committed to your success - academic and personal.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

The documents we collect are:

- Motivation letter (in English)
- CV/Resume
- Letter of Recommendation
- Diploma or proof of current bachelor's studies
- Transcripts of Grades from bachelor's degree
- Proof of English (if you do not have a certificate, submit an honest statement)
- ID or passport copy

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

15 November

ADMISSIONS ADVISOR

Mgr. Klára Němečková is the admissions advisor and is available to answer any questions you have about the application process. Please contact her at admission@fss.muni.cz.

Contact your student ambassador

Frieda came to MU to further her goal of understanding the inner workings of democracy and conflict. Contact her with questions about the master's programme, life in Brno, or completing the application process.

Feel free to contact any of our student ambassadors regarding life in Brno - Darina is the best student to answer questions about the programme International Relations and European Politics.

